

General Program Refund Policy

The following refund policy applies to non-matriculating students and students in the following programs: Community Herbalist Certificate, Holistic Nutrition Certificate, and Holistic Doula Certificate.

1. A student may be entitled to refund of tuition fees in the event that:
 - a. The student provides written notice to the institution that he or she is withdrawing from the program; or
 - b. The institution provides written notice to the student advising that the student has been dismissed from the program.
2. The written notice of withdrawal or dismissal may be delivered in any manner provided that a receipt or other verification is available that indicates the date on which the notice is delivered.
3. The notice of withdrawal or dismissal is deemed to be effective from the date it is delivered.
4. The refund to which a student is entitled is calculated on the total fees due under the contract. Where total tuition fees have not yet been collected, the institution is not responsible for refunding more than has been collected to date and a student may be required to make up for monies due under the contract.
5. If the institution has received fees in excess of the amount it is entitled to under the student contract, the excess amount must be refunded.
6. Refund policy for students:
 - a. Refunds before the program of study begins:
 - i. If written notice of withdrawal is received by the institution less than seven (7) calendar days after the contract is made, and before the commencement of the period of instruction specified in the contract, the institution may retain 5% of the total tuition and fees due under the contract to a maximum of $250.
 - ii. If written notice of withdrawal is received by the institution thirty (30) calendar days or more before the commencement of the period of instruction specified in the contract and more than seven (7) days after the contract was made, the institution may retain 10% of the tuition only due under the contract to a maximum of $1000.
 - iii. Subject to section 6(a)(i), if written notice of withdrawal is received by the institution less than thirty (30) calendar days before the commencement of the period of instruction specified in the contract, and more than seven (7) days after the contract was made, the institution may retain 20% of the total tuition only due under the contract to a maximum of $1300.
 - b. Refunds after the program of study begins:
 - i. If written notice of withdrawal is received by the institution or a student is dismissed before 10% of the period of instruction specified in the contract has elapsed, the institution may retain 30% of the tuition due under the contract.
 - ii. If written notice of withdrawal is received by the institution or a student is dismissed after 10% and before 30% of the period of instruction specified in the contract has elapsed, the institution may retain 50% of the tuition due under the contract.
 - iii. If a student withdraws or is dismissed after 30% of the period of instruction specified in the contract has elapsed, no refund is required.
7. Where a student did not meet the institutional and/or program specific minimum requirements for admission through no misrepresentation or fault of their own, the institution must refund all tuition and fees paid under the contract, less the applicable non-refundable application or registration fee.
8. Where a student withdraws or is dismissed from their program, they are entitled to 100% refund of any as-yet to be received consumables that have been pre-paid.
9. Where a student withdraws or is dismissed from their program after receiving technical equipment from the institution free of charge:
 - a. the student must return the equipment unopened or as issued within fourteen (14) calendar days.
 - b. If the student fails to return the equipment as set out above, the institution may deduct the reasonable cost of the equipment from any amount to be refunded to the student.
10. Refunds owing to students must be paid within thirty (30) calendar days of the institution receiving written notification of withdrawal and all required supporting documentation, or within thirty (30) calendar days of an institution's written notice of dismissal.
